TRIBUTE TO BAGLEY'S MEMORY.

NORFOLK, Va., May 13.—The most touching incident of Confederate Memorial Day, in Portsmouth, today, was the unfurling on the soldiers' and sailors' lot in the cemethe memory of Ensign Worth Bag-ley, U. S. N., the first victim of the Spanish-American war. The walnut flagstaff is wound about with flagstaff is wound about with garlands. At the top is a chaplet of geen and white, while around the base is grouped a profusion of floral designs and rare blossoms. This tribute to the memory of Ensign Bagley was placed this morning by his numerous friends among in testifying their regard. So flowers were brought by fair hands and placed under the shadow of the flag. The large Memorial Day throng marked the flag and its inscription with silent approval, and joined in homage, to the memory of the gallant young Eosign.

VANCE'S MEMORY HONORED.

The Monument at Ashevilla Dedicated and an Address by Governor Taylor, of Tennessee Asheville Citizen.

Asheville put on a perfect holiday air today in honor of the exercises that formally mark the completion and dedication of the monument erected to the memory of that noble North Carolinian, Senator Zebulon Baird Vance.

The program of the day opened with a number by the Asheville Concert band. During the rendition the attention of the throng was attracted by the appearance of the cadets of Bingham school, and the strains of music, the sound of the drum, the marching of the handsome young men and the clapping of hundreds of fair hands made the moment one that in many respects has bad no parallel in Asheville's history.

President Powell called the audience to its feet, when Rev. R. F. Campbell, D. D., pastor of the Presbyterian church, delivered a fervent invocation.

At 2;45 a large number of members of Zebulon Vance Camp, United Confederate Veterans, appeared on the square marching up from their hall for the principles of Jefferson and on South Main. At the same mo- Bryan. Monumental Association, and Col.

Now the way to test their sin cerity is by proposing to them to do; that is, to co-operate on certain great fundamental principles. If they refuse to co-operate it will prove their insincerity and result in one of two things: either that the masses of the party will overthrow them and drive them into the Republican party with Mark Hanna and the Cleveland crowd where they belong, or else it will result in the rank and file of the Democratic party coming to the People's party where they belong. So whether the leaders of the Democratic party are sincere or insincere it is clearly our duty to make an honest effort to secure a fair and honorable co-operation.

Our State Convention is held before the Democratic State Convention to make the first proposition to co-operate. If we meet and adventions the surface of the present of the proposition to co-operate.
